Cornerstone establishes presence in Helsinki

JP Cornerstone, representative for Cornerstone International Group in Sweden and Norway, has established a new office in Helsinki, Finland. JP Cornerstone Finland will be managed by Jukka Hanninen and Lars Pawli. Together they bring over 30 years of expertise in executive search and leadership consulting in the Nordic region, and complement Cornerstone's existing capacity in Scandinavia, the Baltics (Tallinn, Estonia), Russia, and Eastern Europe.

William Guy, Chairman and CEO, Cornerstone, comments: "As the world looks beyond China and India for future expansion, increasing attention is being given by Fortune 500 and Global 500 companies towards the former Eastern Block countries including the Baltics. The decision by Jukka Hanninen and Lars Pawli to partner with Cornerstone International Group will help us all expand our markets to include additional clients in the Nordic Countries, the Baltics, Russia, and other Eastern European countries."

Jukka Hanninen, Managing Director, of JP Cornerstone Finland, adds: "For over thirty years satisfying numerous retained search requirements, we have worked closely with client organizations from various industries including banking and financial services, manufacturing, utility-energy services, etc., to satisfy and/or exceed their individual and vital recruitment needs. Being a part of JP Cornerstone and Cornerstone International Group will allow us to expand the scope of resources we offer to our clients, especially in the Nordic Countries and the Baltics."

Cornerstone International Group has approximately 100 independently-owned offices strategically positioned in virtually every major geographic market around the globe.
